8.4 Remuneration

8.4.1 Remuneration Policy

Employees' Remuneration

The Group's remuneration policy is built on a transparent appraisal system and formulated to drive performance of its employees, who are its most important asset.

The objective of the Group's remuneration policy is to attract, motivate, reward and retain quality staff. The typical compensation package for employees comprises basic salary, variable performance bonus, allowances, as well as benefits. In determining the composition of the package, the nature of the role performed and market practice are taken into consideration. To ensure that its remuneration package is competitive with the industry's benchmark, the Group periodically reviews its base salary ranges and benefits package with comparative groups in the hospitality sector.

The remuneration for the Group's senior management and senior executives aims to motivate them to achieve the Group's annual and long-term goals to ensure that they are aligned with shareholders' interests. Performance-related elements therefore form a part of senior management and senior executives' total remuneration.

The Group's approach to rewarding employees not only helps to attract, retain and motivate talented employees but also fosters a performance-oriented culture across the organization that will help attain the Group's financial objectives.

Directors' Remuneration

The fees for Independent Directors, Non-Executive Directors and Directors reflect the scope and extent of a director's responsibilities and obligations. They are measured against industry benchmarks and are competitive. Directors' fees are subject to shareholders' approval at the Annual General Meeting. In addition to directors' fees, Independent Directors and Non-Executive Directors also receive compensation in kind in terms of goods and services provided at hotels operated by the Group.

Details of the remuneration paid to directors of the Board and management in 2016 are disclosed in the Company's 2016 annual report and Form 56-1 under the section "Directors' and Managements' Remuneration".

9. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

9.1 Corporate Governance Policy

The Company is committed to maintaining high standards of good corporate governance within the organization to protect and enhance long-term shareholder value. The Company has adopted and is continuously developing a set of good corporate governance practices and policies which are modeled on principles advocated by the SET as per the details set out in the following sections. Additionally, the Company has put in place a Code of Corporate Conduct approved by the Board of Directors and Standard Operating Procedures which have been communicated throughout the organization for all employees of the Company to strictly follow in the course of performing their duties. As and when required, new internal rules and regulations are introduced to ensure there are no gaps in the policies.

1. Rights of Shareholders

The Company recognizes the importance of shareholders' rights. In the Company's Annual General Meeting held on 26 April 2016 the Company conducted the meeting in full compliance with all relevant laws and regulations in respect of shareholders' rights in the following manner.

- 1.1 All shareholders have the same basis and rights in the casting of votes at the meetings and the receipt of dividends when declared by the Company. These are calculated based on their respective shareholding in the Company.
- 1.2 At every shareholders' meeting, shareholders are given the right to approve important matters such as election of directors (shareholders can elect directors individually), directors' remuneration, appointment of auditors and dividend payment, etc.

Furthermore, any shareholders who arrive at the meeting after the meeting has begun are still entitled to vote on the agenda items that are still under consideration and have not been voted upon.

- 1.3 The Company has a policy to facilitate and encourage all groups of shareholders including institutional shareholders to attend the Company's Annual General Meeting such as giving an opportunity to every shareholder to propose agenda or send questions related to the Company's business in advance, distributing a package containing the notice and meeting documents in English to foreign shareholders, selecting meeting venue that is convenient for attendance, etc.
- 1.4 The Company invites shareholders to propose agenda items in advance of the AGM through the SET and the Company's website (www.lagunaresorts.com). However, none have been proposed by the shareholders.

- 1.5 The Company does not invite the minority shareholders to nominate their own candidates to be appointed as the Company's directors ahead of the meeting. This is because the Company already gives all shareholders an opportunity to nominate their own candidates (who meet the requirements under the Plc Act) and to vote for candidates at the shareholders' meeting.
- 1.6 Through the Thailand Securities Depository Company Limited, the Company's share registrar, the Company sends out package containing the notice and agenda of the meeting to the shareholders at least 21 days prior to the meeting. The meeting documents include the facts and rationales and opinions of the Board as well as other information relating to the agenda items such as information on the persons nominated for election as directors, auditors' profiles, the part of the Company's Articles of Association that relates to the shareholders' meeting, map showing the venue of the shareholders' meeting, proxy forms, documents and evidence of entitlement to attend the meeting, etc. This is to enable the shareholders to prepare themselves for the meeting. In addition, the notice of the shareholders' meeting is advertised in the newspaper and all information contained in the meeting documents will also be posted on the Company's website (www.lagunaresorts.com) at least 30 days prior to the meeting. Moreover, shareholders are always invited to register at least 1 hour before the meeting begins.

For convenience, transparency and accuracy of the registration and vote counting at the shareholders' meeting, a barcode system has been utilized.

- 1.7 At every shareholders' meeting, all agenda items are clearly identified and particularized, objectives, and rationale and opinions of the Board are also presented in the meeting for consideration of the shareholders. The Chairman will conduct the meeting according to the sequence of the agenda and will not add any additional agenda items which are not indicated in advance in the notice unless there is a proposal to consider other matters other than those specified in the notice, in accordance with the law, from shareholders holding not less than one-third of the total number of shares issued.

No additional agenda item proposed to the 2016 Annual General Meeting other than those specified in the notice.

- 1.8 Before the start of every shareholders' meeting, the Company Secretary will explain the voting methodology to shareholders. In the interest of good corporate governance in regard to transparency, minority shareholders are also invited to witness vote counting of each agenda item. A team of legal counsels from a leading international law firm is appointed to verify the registration procedure before the Chairman of the meeting announces to the shareholders, the number of shareholders and proxy holders present at the meeting and the number of shares held by them. The legal counsels also verify the vote counting procedure in respect of each agenda item before the votes are announced as resolution of the shareholders' meeting. Shareholders may verify the detailed results of the vote of each agenda item at the end of each meeting. The same results and a summary of questions from shareholders will also be included in the minutes of the meeting which are accurately and completely documented in all material aspects and will be sent to all shareholders for their review prior to the following meeting. The minutes of the 2016 Annual General Meeting is posted on the Company's website (www.lagunaresorts.com) within 14 days after the meeting was held.

- 1.9 The Company's policy in conducting shareholders' meetings is not only to meet all legal requirements but to also provide a platform and opportunity for shareholders to communicate their views and ask the directors and management questions regarding matters affecting the Company. The Chairman allocates sufficient time for the meeting and conducts the meeting in an appropriate and transparent manner. During the meeting, shareholders are allowed to give comments and ask questions before the resolution on each agenda item. In addition, shareholders who have any questions that require the Company's clarification during the meeting may send their questions in advance at "ir@lagunaresorts.com" or fax them to 66 (0) 2285 0733.
- 1.10 Apart from the external auditor who will attend the Annual General Meeting, the Chairman of the Board, the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Chairman of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and all of the Company's directors will endeavor to be present at the shareholders' meeting in order to assist the Board in addressing queries raised by the shareholders. The Company also invites its legal counsels from a leading international law firm to attend the meeting in case there are any legal questions which requires clarification during the meeting. Furthermore, the Company provides a professional translator to be present at the meeting to assist shareholders and the Board to communicate more effectively in English and Thai. At the 2016 Annual General Meeting, the Chairman of the Board, the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee, the Chairman of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and other directors were present at the Meeting. Details of their names are stated in the minutes of the 2016 Annual General Meeting.
- 1.11 The Company gives an opportunity for shareholders to freely communicate with each other without creating any barriers and also provides convenient access to relevant news and information via the Company's website (www.lagunaresorts.com) for shareholders to receive adequate important information such as the resolutions of the Company's Board of Directors on important matters, resolutions of the shareholders' meetings, financial information, information which may affect the Company's share price, Annual Report, etc.
- 1.12 The Company received a score of 96 points out of 100 points for the 2016 AGM assessment conducted by the Thai Investors Association. The Company will continue to strive to improve its good corporate governance practices.

2. Equal Treatment of Shareholders

The Company treats all shareholders fairly despite different shareholding proportions and voting power due to their shares. In recognition of its duty to ensure equal treatment of shareholders, the Company complied with all relevant laws and regulations as follows:

- 2.1 The Company has only one class of shares, the ordinary shares. Shareholders shall have votes equal to the number of shares held by each of them, which means one share is entitled to one vote.
- 2.2 For shareholders who are unable to attend a meeting in person, the Company provides opportunity for such shareholders to appoint another person as proxy to attend the meeting on their behalf by using a proxy form B sent by the Company. The Proxy form B is one of the forms prescribed by the Ministry of Commerce which allow shareholders to make voting directions. Moreover, the Company provides opportunity for shareholders to appoint the Company's independent director as proxy to undertake proxy voting on behalf of shareholders who are unable to attend the meeting. The name of the independent director is provided in the proxy forms, together with the profile of that independent director who has been given proxy to vote on behalf of shareholders who are unable to attend the meeting, all of which are attached as part of the meeting documents.
- 2.3 The Company ensures that directors and management are aware of their duty to report a change in their holding of the Company's securities to the SEC within 3 business days in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act. The securities holding report is also included in the agenda of the Board meeting for the Board's acknowledgment once every 3 months.
- 2.4 Any director or management who has an interest in, or is related to, any transaction between the Company and an interested or related person will not participate in the decision making process involving such transaction. The Company has disclosed the details and reasonableness of transaction to shareholders prior to dealing with any transaction in case such transaction requires the approval from shareholders and strictly follows the procedures on such transaction in accordance with the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board. 5. Board Responsibility

5.1 Board Structure

5.1.1 Members of the Board and Terms of Directorship

The Company's Board of Directors currently comprises 12 members, 4 of whom are Independent Directors namely Mr. Vudhiphol Suriyabhivadh, Mr. Udom Vichayabhai, Dr. Jingjai Hanchanlash and Ms. Srinthorn Ounayakovit, representing one-third of the total Board members.

The Board member are selected on the basis of, among other things, knowledge, experience, skill, diversity of expertise, integrity, abilities to make independent analytical inquiries, and their understanding of the Company's business. Currently the Board comprises business leaders and professionals with financial, accounting, legal, business management and sales & marketing backgrounds.

Directors and senior management of the Company have never been an employee or partner of the current external auditor in the past 2 years.

All independent directors of the Company are independent of management and major/substantial shareholders and meet the Company's definition of Independent Director which also in line with the qualification of Audit Committee in accordance with the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board.

The Company's directors are the persons with knowledge, competence, honesty, have ethical business practices and sufficient time to devote themselves to serve the Company. There are no independent directors of the Company who serve on more than five boards of listed companies and no executive directors who serve on more than two boards of listed companies outside of the Group.

The Company's policy to fix the term of office of directors is under Article 14 of the Company's Articles of Association which stipulates that at each annual general meeting, one-third of directors shall retire from office and that the director who has been longest in the office shall retire. Therefore, the term of office of a director of the Board shall be 3 years. Retiring directors would be eligible for re-election.

5.1.2 Definition of "Independent Director"

"Independent Directors" means the persons who have all the necessary qualifications and independence which meet the criteria set by the Capital Market Supervisory Board. At present, the said criteria prescribe that the qualifications of an Independent Director are as follows:

- (a) holding shares not exceeding 1 percent of the total number of voting rights of the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate or juristic person which may have conflicts of interest, including the shares held by related persons of the independent director;
- (b) neither being nor having been an executive director, employee, staff, or advisor who receives salary, or a controlling person of the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate, same-level subsidiary or juristic person who may have conflicts of interest unless the foregoing status has ended not less than 2 years prior to the date of appointment;

The term ‘business relationship’ in the aforementioned under paragraph one includes any normal business transaction, rental or lease of immovable property, transaction relating to assets or services or grant or receipt of financial assistance through receiving or extending loans, guarantee, providing assets as collateral, including any other similar actions, which result in the Company or his counterparty being subject to indebtedness payable to the other party in the amount of 3 percent or more of the net tangible assets of the Company or Baht 20 million or more, whichever is lower. The amount of such indebtedness shall be calculated according to the calculation method for value of connected transactions under the Notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board governing rules on connected transactions mutatis mutandis. The combination of such indebtedness shall include indebtedness taking place during the course of one year prior to the date on which the business relationship with the person commences;

- (e) neither being nor having been an auditor of the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate or juristic person who may have conflicts of interest, and not being a major shareholder, non-independent director, executive or partner of an audit firm which employs auditors of the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate or juristic person who may have conflicts of interest unless the foregoing relationship has ended not less than 2 years from the date of appointment;
- (f) neither being nor having been any professional advisor including legal advisor or financial advisor who receives an annual service fee exceeding Baht 2 million from the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate or juristic person who may have conflicts of interest, and neither being nor having been a major shareholder, non-independent director, executive or partner of the professional advisor unless the foregoing relationship has ended not less than 2 years from the date of appointment;
- (g) not being a director who has been appointed as a representative of the Company’s director, major shareholder or shareholders who are related to the Company’s major shareholder;
- (h) not operating any business which has the same nature as and is in significant competition with the business of the Company or subsidiary, or not being a principal partner in any partnership, or not being an executive director, employee, staff, or advisor who receives salary; or holding shares not exceeding 1 percent of the total number of voting rights of any other company operating a business which has the same nature as and is in significant competition with the business of the Company or subsidiary;

- (i) not having any characteristics which make him incapable of expressing independent opinions with regard to the Company's business affairs.

After having been appointed as independent director with qualifications complying with the criteria under (a) to (i) of paragraph one, the independent director may be assigned by the board of directors to take part in the business decision of the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate, same-level subsidiary or juristic person who may have conflicts of interest on the condition that such decision must be a collective one.

5.1.3 Nomination and Appointment of Directors

The nomination for the Company directorship including an independent director will be based on the suggestion among directors or searching from professional director pool e.g. the Thai Institute of Directors Association (IOD) where a candidate had undergone the director certification programs. The nomination is considered from the board diversity, competence, knowledge, working experience, expertise from variety of professions, necessary skills which are lacking among the existing Board of Directors, to be of any gender and to have the qualifications prescribed by the SET, the SEC, the Capital Market Supervisory Board and the Public Limited Companies Act. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will consider and recommend qualified candidates to the Board of Directors and/or the Annual General Shareholder Meeting for approval in each case. Details of director appointment are described under the heading "Method of Appointment and Removal of Directors as included in the Company's Articles of Association".

5.1.4 Roles of the Chairman of the Board

The key roles of the Chairman of the Board are: to ensure that Board meetings are conducted effectively and matters that are essential to the Company's operations and/or performances are placed on the meeting agenda, particularly matter related to corporate strategy; to allocate sufficient time for management to present clear and timely information; to allow board members to express their opinions and ask questions; and to ensure that board resolutions are clear and the minutes are accurate. The Chairman of the Board also presides over the shareholders' meeting. In making decision, the Chairman has a deciding or casting vote in the event of tied votes.

5.1.5 Aggregation or Separation of Positions – Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

Currently, Mr. Ho KwonPing is the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. He is closely associated with the Group's success. The Board is of the view that the current structure is appropriate and adequate given that Mr. Ho KwonPing has been able to effectively and competently execute the responsibilities of both the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer positions.

5.2 Sub-Committees

The Board approved the establishment of two sub-committees comprising all Independent Directors to assist the Board to screen details in order to achieve operational efficiency. Additionally, in order to perform their duties transparently and independently, the Chairman of the Board is neither a Chairman nor a member of both committees as follows:

5.2.1 Audit and Risk Committee

The Audit and Risk Committee comprises three independent directors, one of whom has adequate expertise and experience to review the creditability of the financial reports by reviewing the financial reports of some listed companies in the Stock Exchange of Thailand. The members and the scope of duties and responsibilities of the Audit and Risk Committee have been disclosed under the heading "Management Structure" in Form 56-1 and in the Company's Annual Report.

5.2.2 Nomination and Remuneration Committee

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee comprises three independent directors, thus forming a strong and independent element which will enable decisions on nomination and remuneration to be made independently. Members and the scope of duties and responsibilities of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee have been disclosed under the heading "Management Structure" in Form 56-1 and in the Company's Annual Report.

5.3 Role, Duty and Responsibility of the Board

5.3.1 Corporate Governance Policy

The Company is committed to maintaining high standards of good corporate governance within the Company. The Company has adopted and is continuously developing a set of good corporate governance practices and policies which are modeled on the 2006 principles of good corporate governance for listed companies advocated by the SET. The Company has also adopted and continues to apply the Code of Corporate Conduct approved by the Board of Directors and communicated throughout the organization. The Standard Operating Procedures have also been documented and applied by the Company. In addition, new internal rules and regulations with an aim to continuously improve the good corporate governance of the Company are approved and announced from time to time.

In the past year, there was no director resigned due to the issue of corporate governance of the Company and no conduct causing a negative reputation of the Company due to the failure of the Board of Director's supervisory performance.

5.3.2 Code of Corporate Conduct

The Board of Directors has approved the Code of Corporate Conduct to set the framework for its officers, executive directors, associates and agents to act in business matters solely for the benefit of the Company and not enter into any business or other transactions which cause or appear to cause a conflict of interest between him / her and a hotel within the group, the Company / subsidiary, owning company or any other related parties. The Code of Corporate Conduct was distributed and communicated to all relevant persons in order to understand and to strictly adhere to the Code accordingly. The Code was drafted based on the highest level of business ethics and law compliance.

During 2016, the Company's Board of Directors was not aware of any claim or allegation that the Company's Code of Corporate Conduct was disobeyed.

5.3.3 Leadership and Vision

The Board's primary functions are to set and annually review vision, mission, corporate policy and overall strategy for the Company and to provide effective oversight of the management of the Company's business and affairs.

Investment & Debt Approval Policy

The delegation of authority by the Board to the management is clear. All major investments, acquisition of assets and loans made by the Company and/or its subsidiaries require approvals from the Board as follows:

- New investments and acquisition of assets with the value from 1.5 percent of the Company's total assets and
- New loans with the value from 5 percent of the Company's shareholders' equity

The approval to enter into a significant transaction by the Company's Board of Directors and/or shareholders' meeting as well as all information disclosure must comply with rules and regulations of the Stock Exchange of Thailand and/or the Capital Market Supervisory Board.

Duties and responsibilities of the Board have been disclosed under the heading "Management Structure" in Form 56-1 and the Company's annual report.

5.3.4 Conflict of Interest

Transactions between the Company and its related parties which may give rise to a conflict of interest are scrutinized by the Audit and Risk Committee and if necessary, the approval to enter into such transactions is sought from the Board of Directors and/or shareholders. Any director or management who has an interest in, or is related to, such transaction will not participate in the decision-making process.

Such transactions are made on terms and pricing that has been negotiated on an arm's length basis. In the event that the price is unavailable, the Company will then rely on the report of an independent appraiser appointed by the Company to value important related party transactions to arrive at a pricing which is fair to both the Company and the related party.

All related party transactions are disclosed clearly and accurately. Details are further described under the heading "Related Party Transactions" in Form 56-1 and under the heading "Persons with Mutual Interest and Connected Transactions" in the Company's Annual Report.

5.3.5 Internal Audit and Control

The Company realizes the significance of effective system of control, such as Standard Operating Procedures, particularly in management and operations. Hence, the duties and responsibilities of the employees and the management are clearly defined. The Company has put in place policies to safeguard the Company's assets and duties between the operators and the appraisal which are clearly separated for effective checks and balances. Furthermore, the Company has also implemented internal audit of the financial and information technology systems.

Internal Audit

Internal audit is an independent function within the Company which reports directly to the Audit and Risk Committee on audit matters and to the Managing Director on administrative matters. Internal audits are performed to assist the Board and Management in the discharge of their corporate governance responsibilities and to improve and promote effective and efficient business processes within the Group. The internal auditor plans its internal audit schedules annually in consultation with, but independent of, Management and its plans are submitted to and approved by the Audit and Risk Committee. The Audit and Risk Committee reviews the activities of the internal auditors on a quarterly basis to ensure it is adequately resourced; and has appropriate standing within the Company to perform its role effectively.

Enterprise Risk Management

In 2005 the Company appointed an external consultant to assist management in implementing a Risk Management framework for the business of the Company. The Risk Management framework covers all aspects of the Company's operations to enable significant business risks within the Group's current business environment to be identified, assessed, monitored, managed and evaluated. As part of the on-going risk management process, the Company's Group Risk Committee annually conducts a risk assessment, evaluation and treatment; considers the adoption of adequate and cost-effective system of internal controls to mitigate significant business risks; and provides for significant risks to be managed through regular reviews by the Company's Group Risk Committee and the Audit and Risk Committee. The Audit and Risk Committee has reviewed the Group's risk management processes and procedures and is satisfied that there are adequate internal controls in place to manage the significant risks identified.

5.3.6 Meetings of the Board and Committees

1. The Board

The Company conducts Board meetings at least 4 times a year on a quarterly basis which are planned and formally agreed upon in advance in the fourth quarter before the start of the new financial year. The meeting documents shall be sent out to the directors in advance at least 5 days prior to the meeting date. Additional meetings are convened as and when circumstances warrant. The Company conducts Nomination and Remuneration Committee at least 2 times a year. The meetings are planned and formally agreed upon in advance in the fourth quarter before the start of the new financial year. Additional meetings are convened as and when circumstances warrant. In 2016, the Company conducted 2 Nomination and Remuneration Committee meetings. Each of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee members attended the meetings as follows:

Name		Number of Attendances
Dr. Jingjai	Hanchanlash	2
Mr. Udom	Vichayabhai	2
Mr. Vudhiphol	Suriyabhivadh	2

5.3.7 The Non-Management Meeting

The Company encourages non-executive directors to hold meetings with the external auditor as necessary without the presence of executive directors and management attendance to review and discuss freely on any business issues that are of interest. In 2016, there was one non-management meeting held in November.

5.3.8 Board of Directors' Report

1. Financial Report

The Board of Directors is accountable to its shareholders for the Company's financial statements as well as the financial information as shown in the Annual Report. The Board of Directors is satisfied that the Company's financial statements are prudently prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and are independently reviewed by the external auditors every quarter with a full audit performed at each year-end. Additionally, the Audit and Risk Committee has been tasked to independently review the Company's financial report and internal control practices directly with the auditors. All pertinent information relating to the financial statements is clearly and completely disclosed in the accompanying notes.

Details are described under the heading "Internal Control and Risk Management" in Form 56-1 and under the heading "Opinion of the Board of Directors on the Company's Internal Control" and the "Board of Directors' Responsibility for the Company's Financial Statements" in the Company's Annual Report.

2. Minutes of Meetings

The minutes of the meetings of the Board and other committees are accurately and completely recorded in all material aspects addressed at each meeting, including the questions, opinions and clarifications. The Company has a safe and secure filing system in place to keep the minutes of meetings and other supporting documents.

5.3.9 Development of Directors and Management

The Company's directors, management and employees are constantly encouraged to develop their skills by attending various seminars and training courses organized by various organizations, e.g. the Thai Institute of Directors Association, the SET and the SEC, etc. Seminars and training courses are periodically forwarded to them. Furthermore, relevant information is regularly provided to the directors so that they are kept abreast of latest developments thus enabling them to make informed decisions. In 2016, Dr. Jingjai Hanchanlash, an Independent Director, attended the seminar "The UK Experience on Implementing the Enhanced Auditor Reporting" held by the SEC, SET and Federation of Accounting Professions.

Details of the training previously undertaken by each director are set out in Attachment 1 to Form 56-1 and under the heading "Board of Directors, Management, Head of Group Internal Audit and Company Secretary of the Company" in the Company's Annual Report.

5.3.10 Orientation for New Director

The Company recognizes the importance of supporting new directors in performing their duties. The Company has provided the information on its business and other information related to the operations of the Company to new directors such as an annual report and relevant laws and regulations so that they are adequately informed of the rules and regulations and business of the Company prior to performing their duties.

9.2. Board Structure

- (c) A director may be removed by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting passed by a vote of not less than three-fourths of the number of the shareholders who attend the meeting and are entitled to vote and the shares which voted shall not be less than half of the total shares of the shareholders who attended the meeting and are entitled to vote thereon.

9.4 Governing Over Operations of Subsidiary / Associated Companies

Members of the Company's management have been assigned to act as Directors, as well as being entrusted with Directorship roles within subsidiaries and affiliates companies. They act as representatives on behalf of the Company. This allows the Company to have a say in the formation of policy. It also helps the Company to stay current and monitor the performance of these companies more efficiently, being able to closely track their key performance indicators.

9.5 Supervision on the Use of Inside Information

In order to prevent the misuse of confidential and price-sensitive corporate information, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the policy on dealing in securities of the Company which prohibits any directors, management and employees, regardless of rank, from disclosing or using such confidential and price-sensitive corporate information. Employees are prohibited to trade in the Company's shares for personal gain or for any other reason not in the Company's interest or dealing in the Company's securities while in possession of unpublished confidential and price-sensitive information during the "embargo period" which is defined as 2 weeks before and up to the date of announcement of results for each of the first three quarters of the Company's financial year, and 1 month before and up to the date of announcement of the full-year financial results. The policy and reminder of the embargo period is communicated to directors, management and employees on an annual and quarterly basis to strictly comply with this policy. Confidential and price-sensitive information is also restricted to only directors, management and those officers who have a direct responsibility over such matters. Any violation of this policy shall be subject to disciplinary actions under the working regulation. Additionally, the Company monitors the trading of the Company's securities by its directors, and senior management who are required to report to the Board of Directors on a quarterly basis on the holding of the Company's securities and in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

10.4.2 Social Equity

Our social equity initiatives aim to build the capacities of local communities and associates through socially beneficial projects whereby community members and associates can benefit from our support for their personal betterment as well as professional advancement.

Seedlings – Social Enterprise Restaurant

Seedlings is the first restaurant launched by Laguna Lang Co under Banyan Tree’s group-wide mentorship program with the aim to provide training and job opportunities for disadvantaged local youths, giving them the necessary life skills to forge successful careers in hospitality. Seedlings serves as a launching platform for local youth development in collaboration with non-governmental and non-profit organizations, providing invaluable vocational skills and experience.

Seedlings Phuket restaurant is located in the heart of Laguna Phuket, situated at Laguna Holiday Club Resort, opens daily from 06.30 a.m. to 10.00 p.m. for all day dining, serving Phuket, Asian and Western dishes.

Laguna Phuket Associate Saving Co-Operative

Laguna Phuket Social Committee successfully established the Laguna Phuket Associate Saving Co-Operative in January 2010 with the objective of providing secure, reliable, profitable, and fair financial services to members. As “shareholders,” members are entitled to such benefits as annual dividends, low interest loans, and high interest savings schemes. To-date, the cooperative holds Baht 51 million share volume with 1,076 associate members.

Laguna Phuket Children’s Day

Laguna Phuket organized the 24th Children’s Day event on 9 January 2016 which was attended by more than 4,000 people from the local communities and guests of Laguna Phuket hotels. Highlights of the event were stage performance, magic show, merry-go-round, game booths and goodies. Our children’s day activities aim to encourage and inspire children to become active, informed and concerned citizens of the next generation, and to help them recognize the importance of their role in the society.

10.4.3 Educational Empowerment

Educational empowerment initiatives aim to build the capacities of local communities and associates through our programs that empower people of all ages in order to help people pursue a life-long learning journey, and realize their potential.

At Laguna Phuket, we seek to fulfil our stakeholders’ needs in order to match guidance and knowledge to their own interests and sources of inspiration. We believe that there is no greater empowerment than the will and feverish desire to learn something new every day.

Laguna Phuket Kindergarten

Originally established in 1992 as a Child Care Centre. The centre is widely acknowledged as one of the best in Thailand and at the end of 2008 was formally established as Laguna Phuket Kindergarten under the guidance of the Ministry of Education. Today, the greatly-expanded program caters to 173 children aged between three to six, with 12 certified teachers creating fun and educational daily activities. To-date, 3,214 students have enrolled and 813 students have graduated from Laguna Phuket Kindergarten.

Laguna Phuket Community Learning Centre (CLC)

Laguna Phuket Community Learning Centre (CLC) was established in March 2007 from Phuket Tsunami Recovery Funds (PTRF) to develop long-term assistance for those affected by the 2004 Tsunami, it was originally set up as community English language centre providing free English courses to community members, with the generous support of Cherngtalay Sub-District Administrative Office.

On 22 December 2014, the newly refurbished centre was relaunched as the Community Learning Centre in recognition of the 10th Tsunami commemoration and has become a community hub where people can develop their general life skills, and further their knowledge in Chinese, and performing arts in addition to English courses. To-date, 8,250 learners have participated in our programs.

Fully Booked! Mobile Learning Centre (MLC)

Fully Booked! Mobile Learning Centre project aims to re-introduce reading, the basis of self-empowerment. To children in the local community who lack adequate access to books on diverse range of topics. The Mobile Learning Centre was launched in April 2014 with the objective to provide a 2-in-1 service as a library and a classroom to increase the rate and quality of literacy among pilot schools in Phuket and neighboring provinces.

Our program start-up was funded by Baht 2.2 million fundraised from Laguna Phuket sports events and another Baht 2.2 million matching fund from Banyan Tree Global Foundation. MLC visits schools 4 days per week and creating learning courses including English day camp and Sufficiency Economy day trip benefiting over 1,100 students and 50 teachers in Phuket and Pang-Nga.

10.4.4 Health & Sports Promotion

Laguna Phuket is dedicated to helping people achieve a sensible work-life balance. We encourage people to work hard, and we promote play and leisure. We believe that leisure is the most fun when it exercises the mind and body, so our health and sports promotion events focus on meaningful sporting activities, such as Survival Swim and Red Cross Blood Donation.

Red Cross Blood Donation

Laguna Phuket is one of Thailand's prominent corporate blood donors to the Thai Red Cross Blood Donation Program. Since 2003, we have donated 1,653,750 cc of blood and 3,675 associates have participated in our Blood Drive program.

Survival Swim

Survival Swim teaches children how to survive in water, either a swimming pool or in the ocean. How can children in a seaside community not know how to swim? Yet many do not. Laguna Phuket is committed to seeing that no children are scared of water but do have a healthy respect of the ocean and even for play in and around swimming pools. We make sure they have a chance to save themselves if they find themselves in trouble in the sea. We provide free swim training lessons to primary school students in Phuket.

The funding support of Baht 1.2 million was raised from Laguna Phuket sports and community events in 2011. To-date, 2,285 students have been trained since 2011.

10.4.5 Environmental Preservation

Our Environmental Conservation initiatives emphasize raising awareness of climate change and human impact on local natural resources. In partnering with local conservation efforts, Laguna Phuket supports various initiatives that ensure sustainable rehabilitation of marine and shoreline resources around Phuket Island and nearby provinces.

EarthCheck

EarthCheck is the environmental certification program that Laguna Phuket is registered with as a precinct. The key objective is to monitor and improve our environmental practices to achieve sustainability outcomes in our business operations by providing a framework for environmental and social sustainability.

Laguna Phuket has received EarthCheck's Bronze Status in September 2014 and has been awarded Silver Status since April 2015. The annual audit to retain the Silver Status was conducted in December 2016.

Mangrove Tree Planting : The 10th Anniversary of our Greening Community Initiative

Since 2007, Laguna Phuket has worked in collaboration with Phuket Mangrove Station. In 2016, we have planted 2,400 mangrove saplings. To-date over 25,000 mangrove saplings were planted in southern provinces of Thailand. 1,000 associates have participated with this project and 450 community members have joined us.

Sea Turtle Conservation

Laguna Phuket has supported sea turtle conservation programs in Phuket province since 1994. Our efforts focus on raising funds and awareness in support of the Phuket Marine Biological Centre and the 3rd Area Naval Command, Royal Thai Navy, whose ongoing conservation and rehabilitation programs include studies of nesting behavior, tracking and analysis of turtle migration via microchips and satellite tracking devices attached to released turtles.

50 turtles were released in 2016 with the help of 200 participants. To-date, 2,020 turtles have been released and nearly 4,000 people have participated in this program since 1994.

11. INTERNAL CONTROL AND RISK MANAGEMENT

11.1 Opinion of the Board of Directors on the Company's Internal Control

Based upon the reports of work carried out by the external auditors, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that the Company's internal accounting controls are adequate and have enabled the external auditors to opine that the financial statements for the year ended 2016 are presented fairly. The Board has also taken note of and accepted the Audit and Risk Committee's report on the internal control system and therefore concludes that there are no material weaknesses in the Company's internal control system.

11.2 Opinion of the Audit and Risk Committee on the Company's Internal Control

The Audit and Risk Committee met four times in 2016 to perform its tasks as per the charter and amongst other activities, it reviewed the work of both the Company's internal and external auditors. These reviews were based upon a structured schedule of works which the Audit and Risk Committee approved annually in advance and also takes in additional reviews when it is deemed appropriate.

Throughout the year 2016, Risk Management was implemented across the Laguna Resorts & Hotels Public Company Limited group. In this regard, controls that mitigate risks to an acceptable level identified in the risk registers were seriously reviewed; additionally the process documentation review of internal controls have also been conducted to ensure that the Company has sufficient procedures and controls.

Based upon these reviews, the Audit and Risk Committee is satisfied that the Group's internal controls are sufficient both to support its operations and to enable the external auditors to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements presented fairly in all material respects, the financial position and the results of its operations.

11.3 Head of Group Internal Audit

Mr. Cheng Sai Him was appointed as Head of Group Internal Audit on 1 July 2016.

Mr. Cheng Sai Him graduated from the Nanyang Technological University of Singapore with a Bachelor of Accountancy. He has over 10 years of audit experiences of which 5 years were in the hospitality and property development industries. The Company views that based on his experiences and knowledge, he meets the qualifications to head the internal audit function. (Qualification and profile of the Head of Group Internal Audit is shown in Attachment 1)

The Audit and Risk Committee is empowered to approve the appointment, termination and transfer of employment of the Head of the Internal Audit unit as prescribed in its Charter described in section 8.1 under heading "Board Structure".

12. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During 2016, the Company and its subsidiaries had a significant number of business transactions with related parties (related by way of shareholding, common shareholders, directors and/or management) but all of which are conducted as part of the Company's normal course of business.

The Company by the nature of its product and its complex group structure has a large number of related party transactions. Laguna Phuket is an integrated resort with a number of hotels and associated resort services being incorporated in different companies within the group. This in itself results in a significant number of related party transactions which are considered to be necessary and reasonable for the operation of Laguna Phuket. The nature, pricing and agreements of these transactions are summarised below:

Inter Resort Charges and Credit Card Commission

- These charges relate to goods and services that are consumed by customers in one part of Laguna Phuket but are billed centrally to the customer at the hotel at which the customer is staying. Such charges relate to meals at restaurants, golf fees, treatments at the spa and goods purchased at shops in the resort. On receiving the funds centrally from the customer, the hotel reimburses the company in which the goods and services are consumed. Actual receipts are paid and credit card commission is charged ranging from 2 percent to 5 percent of the revenue and are based on the commissions charged by the credit card companies. Such inter resort charges are also incurred at the Banyan Tree Bangkok and Banyan Tree Lijiang primarily for treatments at the spa and goods purchased at the shops.
- These transactions provide the convenience of guest's payment and to promote the resort integration.

Training Charges

- Training charges by BTHR(T) in respect of providing centralised training facilities and courses for staff. The training costs are allocated to each operation based on actual cost.

Procedures for Approving Related Party Transactions

It is the Group's policy to ensure that there is no conflict of interest when related party transactions are executed. All existing related party transactions are communicated by each of the operations on a quarterly basis and reviewed by management. New proposed related party transactions are identified by and/or communicated to higher level management and the transactions are approved by either senior management, Board of Directors or the shareholders in accordance with the requirements of the SET and SEC. All new significant related party transactions are presented to the Audit and Risk Committee for opinion which includes demonstrating that the transaction is on commercial terms and on an arm's length basis. Once recommended by the Audit and Risk Committee the transaction will be proposed to the Board of Directors or the Board of Directors and shareholders for approval. Interested directors do not take part in approving the transaction.

Future Policy or Tendency of Related Party Transactions

It is the intention of the Company to minimise the incidence of related party transactions wherever practicable. However given the nature of the Group structure and the Group's business it is not possible to cease many of the current transactions. As a result, the Group's future policy is geared towards ensuring that all current and future transactions are necessary and are on commercial terms and on arm's length basis.

The reason of having persons with mutual interest holding (both directly and indirectly) more than 10 percent of the shares in the subsidiaries and associate in lieu of the Company

The person who may have a mutual interest and holds (both directly and indirectly) more than 10 percent of the shares in the subsidiaries and associate of the Company is BTH, who is also a major shareholder of the Company. The subsidiaries and associate whose shares are held by BTH engage in hotel and property development as well as souvenir retail in the hotels managed by BTH. With BTH's expertise and experience of international hotel development and management of award-winning hotels under the trademarks of "Banyan Tree", "Angsana", and "Cassia", the joint investment with BTH will result in the said subsidiaries and associate benefitting from the use of trademarks, reputation and managerial assistance of BTH.

Related party transactions, which have been concluded on the terms and basis determined by the Company, its subsidiaries and related parties, or in accordance with the agreement, are detailed below. Significant transactions greater than Baht 1 million are disclosed separately and non significant transactions have been grouped.
